CORONER MAD

Did Not Get to Hold Two Inquests Yesterday Morning.

Will See That He Is Notified Hereafter By the Proper Persons

Coroner George Phelps was not in the city of Paducah this morning. He was mad because he did not get to hold two inquests yesterday in accordance with the duties prescribed by law.

Susan Hunt died last night before she could be buried. She did not die a natural death, and so far as any official conclusion is concerned, no one knows where she got the poison, whether she was poisoned or died from an overdose taken by herself. Of course the general opinion is that she was a victim of excessive use of cocaine, but this ought to have been officially determined by inquest.

When the coroner went to hold the inquest yesterday morning, he found that the body had been shipped to Brooklyn on the early boat.

Later in the day he ascertained that the negro Will Hughes, shot at the railroad last week, died from blood poisoning at the city hospital, the blood poisoning being the result of a pistol wound inflicted by an unknown negro.

The police had never investigated the case to any extent, and the coroner thought it very proper that an inquest should be held. When he went to hold this one, he found that the remains had already been buried in the county graveyard.

He does not say whose fault it is that he was not notified in time.

The undertaker (each of the above named cases had a death certificate and this is sufficient for him.) "I give a bond almost as large as the sheriff," remarked Coroner Phelps this morning, "and I have sworn duties to perform. I mean to perform them or know the reason why. It was my duty to hold an inquest in each of the cases yesterday, but I was balked in it by some body."

He said he would summon witnesses this afternoon to answer questions and ascertain who is to blame in such violations of law.

IN STATU QUO

The State Election Seems Now to Have Reached That Condition.

BOTH SIDES ARE CONFIDENT

Goebelers Think Their Tactics Will Yet Win Their King the Governorship.

COMMISSIONERS AND BRADLEY

FRANKFORT, Nov. 16.—The gubernatorial question is in statu quo. Neither political party is now confident of a victory, and although it is generally believed that he was not elected, by enforcing Goebel tactics he may yet be Kentucky's next governor. It is now expected by all that the result rests with the election commissioners of the state, and then with Governor Bradley.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 16.—Mr. H. F. Howes, who witnessed the canvass of the returns in Johnson county, is here. He says all the commissioners certified to the correctness of the count and entire legality of all that was done. He says neither of them claimed fraud. Mr. Howes also said that the so-called tissue ballots used in Johnson county were exactly like the ballots used in four other counties adjoining. He says there will be no contest in that county, as there is no ground whatever for it.

Chairman George W. Long, of the Republican state committee, today received the official election certificate from Johnson county. The certificate shows a majority in Johnson county of 878 for Taylor.

SOMERSET, Nov. 16.—The county board of election commissioners decided to report Pulaski county's vote as originally counted, with the exception of the change of the vote from Taylor to Goebel, making Taylor's majority 1,546.

The attorneys for Mr. Goebel undertook to throw out five precincts, among them the boundary had been changed later than the law allowed. The board, after much contention, refused to throw out those precincts on this account, and the certificates have been signed and forwarded to the secretary of state.

GREENSBURG, Nov. 16.—The court granted a writ ordering the election officers of the Brentwood precinct to reassemble and complete their certificate of the vote cast at the Brentwood precinct.

VANSEBURY, Nov. 16.—It is said that the same cool, resolute and determined crew of men that were here last Monday to protest against the action of the election board in throwing the county vote out, will be here to urge that the vote in Burtonville precinct be counted. The board adjourned Monday to take this question under advisement today.

The leading Republicans here say that they want only justice, and will do all in their power to prevent a steal in the county. They say that Lewis county's 845 majority will be counted for Taylor.

HOPKINSVILLE, Nov. 16.—The Goebelites commenced their throwing out of Hopkinsville precinct No. 1, which gave Taylor 95 plurality, Mr. Ireland, Republican member, dissenting. This action defies by one vote Jackson Tate, citizens' candidate for council, who, on the face of the returns, was elected by 29 plurality. Republicans and Goebelites and supporters of the citizens' committee ticket were thoroughly indignant over the action of the board.

VERY SENSATIONAL

Episode Witnessed By a Number of People Last Night.

The Names of Either of the Persons Could Not Be Learned.

Last night about 9 o'clock a man was leisurely walking on South Seventh street from Broadway towards Court. When he reached the last named street, a black was driven up, the door opened and a woman stepped out into the light.

Without a word, so far as any one could hear, she began belaboring him with a buggy whip. He walked on as if nothing unusual was happening, and after going several feet she ceased and retracing her steps, got back into the hack, and was driven away, going in the direction from which she came.

This afternoon it was reported that John Lowe, the driver of the hack, was the victim of the woman's wrath. The name of the woman was not learned, but it is supposed that she was one of his female enemies.

HOOK-EMERY CONTEST.

Justice Emery Tells What He Will Do Next.

Justice Charles Emery, against whom the decision of the election commissioners was yesterday rendered in his contest for the certificate of election as magistrate in the Fourth district, this morning said that an appeal from the decision of the commissioners would be taken by him to the McCracken circuit court at once.

If the circuit court decided against him, he declared, it would then be taken to the court of appeals, and if the court of appeals decided against him, it would be dropped.

If the court of appeals decided in his favor, however, he avowed, he would then sue Mr. Hook's bossmen for the fees collected during the time consumed in fighting the case, and for other perquisites of office, and the office itself.

The decision of the commissioners as a court would indicate Mr. Emery has no grounds for a contest.

There is a report in circulation that the Goebel attorneys in the case, who general rumor says brought the suit at no cost whatever to Mr. Emery, has taken the papers in the contest and all evidence and declare it is to be presented before the state canvassing board along with a number of other points of contest. They will make a fight to have the entire precinct thrown out by the state board.

NO SHOWER YET

Bright Heavens Last Night and This Morning However.

Hicks' Opinion on the Matter of Interest—Later Promised Display.

It was sufficiently clear last night, or rather this morning, for the observers to have witnessed any shower of meteors or falling of stars, but none had the pleasure of such a sight. Nothing of the kind occurred, though a few shooting stars were seen and the light of one meteor observed by some.

The promise still holds good for the "shower," however, and the disappointed would do well to persevere. The astronomers can be entirely wrong and now have yet given an exact date. In this connection Rev. E. B. Hicks' views are to the point. He says:

"The expected display in Leo will be seen in St. Louis between 4:30 and 5:30 a. m. No one knows the exact day, but the period is now certain. The constellation of Leo, which is sickle-shaped, will appear about 5 o'clock in the east, midway between the horizon and the center of the sky. In the center of the circular 'reaper hook' is the radiant of the expected shower."

"November 27 will be the center of another meteoric period, much more spectacular, I believe, than this one. It will have its radiant in Andromeda. To see this display, look a little north of the center of the sky about 9:30 o'clock p. m."

"The demonstration in Leo, which is scheduled to appear every 33 1/3 years, may not be at all visible from the earth. The rays may pass within a 24-hour ball, or it may strike a visible stream of fiery projectiles, shooting in all directions, but apparently having no radiant point."

"No mortal knows exactly where meteors come from, but the most acceptable theory is that they are pieces of a comet that has become disintegrated—bursting into hundreds of thousands of bits, which, when they come in contact with the atmosphere, burn themselves out."

NEW BAND.

The Merchants are Contributing Liberally to It.

Mr. Ben Welle is visiting the merchants for subscriptions for Paducah's new band. The need of a band was clearly shown at the carnival, when Paducah had to send elsewhere for music.

Five or six musicians from Muncyboro, Ill., and several from Indiana have agreed to come, and the band is to be supported by subscription, and will give two free concerts each week in spring and summer.

Mr. Welle is meeting with encouragement, and the merchants are subscribing liberally.

Miss Debbie Wallace, a daughter, left this morning for Cairo and Mrs. John Smith, another daughter, left this afternoon via rail.

JOUBERT DEAD

It Is Reported the Boers Have Lost in Death Their Great

GENERAL AND ARMY VETERAN

Said to Have Been Killed Before Ladysmith By Fragment of a Shell.

INTELLIGENCE FROM THE SCENE

LONDON, Nov. 16.—A report has been received here from Estcourt, Natal, telling, with some details, of the alleged death of General Joubert, as the first dispatch from Durban did—namely, that he had been shot while leading troops at Ladysmith on the 12th. The war office does not confirm the report of Joubert's death at Ladysmith, however.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—A Petter's burg dispatch of the 11th, says it is rumored there that General Joubert was killed at Ladysmith.

ESCOURT, Natal, Nov. 16.—The West Yorkshire and other regiments have arrived here since the 12th. The Boers have begun a closer investment of the British positions.

DURBAN, Nov. 16.—Runners report the Boers have blown up a railroad and roadbed at Chevely, five miles below Colenso. It is presumed that the river bridge at Colenso is also destroyed.

The Boers have renamed Dundee from, which General Buller was forced to retreat. Meyersdorf, in honor of General Lucas Meyer, who captured the town.

Chaplain Matthews, of the Irish Fusiliers, who was captured at Nicholson's Nek, has arrived via Estcourt, Macquoz, having been released by the Boers. He modifies his original statement that the surrender of the British was caused by the blunder of some subordinate officers and says the British made heroic defense against overwhelming odds, but had to choose between surrender and extermination.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 16.—A delayed report says a forward movement for the relief of Kimberley was begun on the 11th. It was reported that the Boer general, Cronje, was withdrawing from Mafeking and concentrating at Kimberley. The Boers had deserted Belmont Station, south of Kimberley, on the railroad.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 16.—Dr. Leyds, the Transvaal agent, says he doesn't believe Joubert dead, but if it is so he says the moral result of his death would be real disaster to the Boers, as he is their best general.

DURBAN, Nov. 16.—The Pretoria Volksstem announces that Blake, an American colonel of the Irish Boer brigade, has been wounded. Blake was formerly a lieutenant of the Sixth United States artillery. He is a graduate of West Point and known as a daring man of the cow boy type.

Durban reports Joubert's death as still unconfirmed but generally credited. It is stated he died from a wound caused by a fragment of a shell.

Lawton's telegraph line is now beyond San Jose. The last dispatch, on evening of 14th, reported the capture of many supplies in transportation. Gen. Lawton has a abundant supplies and forage. Subsistence and transportation at San Isidro and Cabanatuan being troublesome to move Gen. MacArthur has put railroad between Bantuan and Talaric in operation. He sent four battalions and a troop of cavalry to Gerona today.

The gang was especially pleased with the mayor of Memphis, Mr. Williams, who is a jolly good fellow, and has promised to come to Paducah sometime and see the boys.

POLICE COURT

Shelby Bell Arrested on a Grave Charge Last Night.

An Aged Couple in the Police Court For Immorality Today.

Shelby Bell, a one legged negro, was arrested last night on a charge of detaining Hettie Jones against her will. He called her into an alley from Eighth to Ninth, between Washington and Clark, and the woman's screams attracted the attention of Officers Johnson and Rogers, who arrested Bell. The case was called this morning and continued until Friday.

George Strader and Katie Crosscoe, who appeared to be about 55 years old and 50 years old, respectively, were charged with immorality when Judge Sanders opened court. The man claimed he was in the room with the woman to complete his toilet, and judging from the condition in which he was found, it badly needed completion. They were fined $20 and costs each, and judgment was suspended on condition that they be good in the future.

The police and railroad watchmen are having a great deal of trouble with tramps sleeping in engines. John Kehoe was the latest victim, and he was arrested last night by Special Watchman Tolbert while asleep on an engine. He claimed that one of the hostlers gave him permission to sleep there. He was fined $10 and costs and the court informed him that if the man who gave him permission could be found, the fine would be remitted and the hostler fined and discharged if the railroad company can be induced to do so.

"THE TURTLE"

Fine Attraction at Morton's Opera House Tonight.

The Turtle company arrived this morning from Cairo, where they appeared last night to a large and fashionable audience, every seat in the Cairo opera house being sold in advance. The audience was composed largely of ladies. Paducah seldom gets as famous an attraction as "The Turtle." Our theatre-goers should show their appreciation for something good and witness the performance of "The Turtle," at the opera house tonight.

OTHER CITY OFFICES.

In the list of offices to be filled by the new council, yesterday's sun failed to name above of fire chief and assistant fire chief, and two members of the board of health. Chief Wood is a candidate for reelection as chief and Mr. W. E. Augustus for assistant chief, both without opposition. They are both efficient officers and have pleased everybody, and will doubtless be re-elected.

Two members of the board of health are to be elected to succeed Dr. Simpson and Capt. John Farley.

DIED IN CHRISTIAN COUNTY.

Mr. F. M. Gardner, father of Gardner Brothers, the furniture dealers, this morning received the sad intelligence that his brother, Mr. J. D. Gardner, died yesterday from typhoid fever at his home in Christian county, near Hopkinsville. He was about 55 years old and leaves no family. The remains will be brought to the city this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and taken to Murray, Kentucky, tomorrow for interment.

MRS. SALLIE MORGAN DIES.

Mrs. Sallie Morgan died this morning at her home on South Fourth street, No. 1019, aged 40. She was wife of John Morgan, and a most estimable lady. The remains will be buried at the Lagore graveyard in the country tomorrow.

—Officer Tom Orr has been appointed by Mayor Lang police officer at the new I. C. depot, for day service. He began work this morning on his new beat. It is somewhat dull at present, but he expects to get livelier sooner or later.

PELL, Observer.

Henry Petter, one of the waterways delegates from here, who was at the Memphis convention which closed there last evening went to New Orleans by rail with a large body of water way delegates. They left Memphis at 1:30 this morning.

Henry Arste, editor of the St. Louis Waterways Journal, was a delegate to the waterways convention. Billy is alright and a "good mixer," and also as good a judge of "old Kentucky conventional water" as any man living.

A Pittsburgh telegram of Sunday says: "Meetings of the river firm," and "nates" unions were held in the afternoon. Both organizations took steps to put themselves in a better position of defense when the fight with the river combine comes. This will be when the first coal goes out. The mates decided to apply for a court charter."

There are highways, and all kinds of ways, but if there is anything that can beat the waterways there is no one who was at Memphis this week that you can prove it by.

Colonel Berry, Kentucky's representative to the waterways convention at Memphis, made a great hit yesterday in his speech at the Auditorium yesterday.

The John L. Lowry arrived from Tennessee river this morning with fair business. She left on return to day with a light trip.

The J. B. Richardson had a good trip for Cairo this morning.

The Bob Dudley is the regular mail and express packet leaving here to-morrow for Evansville.

The W. J. Cummings had a good trip on departure for Tennessee river last evening.

The Tennessee is due out of the Tennessee river tonight.

The Denckman, which was repaired at the marine ways here left for Henderson this morning.
